

Dear John, David and all those at the Wedding Music
Company

Paul and I had to write to thank you all for everything you did to help our wedding day to be so memorable. We were both determined to have beautiful music at our wedding but we were not quite prepared for what you provided on 6th September!

Your advice and guidance beforehand was invaluable. Thank you for suggesting 'If ye love me' by Tallis. It was so appropriate and worked really well in our little medieval country church. The 'Nulla in Mundo pax sincera' was beautiful - the anticipation before the singing started was palpable - not least from Paul and I. We were both quietly humming along during the signing of the register to the 'Alleluia', from Exultate Jubilate and, well, the 'Soave sia il vento' - I don't think there was a dry eye in the church!! That piece of music was one of my father's 'Deer's Island Discs' and he was so excited when we had decided on that piece to end with. He thought it so appropriate for a wedding. We managed, thanks to my mother-in-law to capture that on video and my father was visibly moved - he said afterwards that he had never heard it sung so beautifully! Please pass on our thanks to all the singers - a number of our guests said afterwards that they had wanted to applaud but they didn't quite know what was appropriate. Please pass on our thanks to Jeremy too - we have never heard the little parish church organ sound so beautiful!

Many thanks once again.

Celia and Paul Smith
