Dear Emma + John

Belatedly another letter to add to your pile - written & posted to add without request.

The D.J. you supplied for our Reception (5.7.03, Emvill Manor, W. Sussex) was brilliant and exactly what you said he/she would be. Smartly dressed, played 'our' music and no aimless chat. He was very helpful in making our P.A. system work for The Comedian during the evening - and it was a lovely touch playing 'our' song as the final Song. He set up and dismantled without reference to us and disappeared before we said Goodbye - please pass on our thanks.

And finally, your company was the only one out of the whole wedding celebrations, who made contact with me in the weeks beforehand - I'm a bar worrier so this was very reassuring.

Thanks again.
